A full field of first timers over the short course where the lease experienced, ISLA AND ADDIE (5) displays the most upside for this format. Working hard when parked outside the smart BETTOR CULLECT last start, she was buried the start prior. This looks within her reach.

CHAMPAGNE REACTOR (4) was caught trying to secure position last start and had to retreat to the rear and in the process her chances expired. Placed her four previous appearances in succession, all here on The Triangle, she can slot in handy to issue the challenge.

MY ULTIMATE HESTON (2) won't have the speed to be the lamp lighter, but tucked in behind them, he can be more than effective when the gaps present to take his shot at the podium.

SELECTIONS: ISLA AND ADDIE (5), CHAMPAGNE REACTOR (4), MY ULTIMATE HESTON (2)

BLACKJACK CRIPPA (6) has been saved for this after a successful raid on the early rounds. Resuming to start his 3YO term when firing out from the outside gate to find the front and pull away in the stretch, he comes into this fresh and with a three from four record on this deck.

BUSTN FEELZ GOOD (3) opened the 2024 Trot Rods Season with victory in the opening heat when finding the front from gate 2 and never relinquishing thereafter. A winner since that victory three starts back, he can fire across again and look to throw down the challenge to his rivals.

ROLLONX (4) is two from three at this format and comes into this heat in good form with placings in four of his past five starts. He has early speed and will be in the mix.

SELECTIONS: BLACKJACK CRIPPA (6), BUSTN FEELZ GOOD (3), ROLLONX (4)

Another field with limited exposure at this trip and by virtue of the ace, ILLBEWATCHING (1) looks to get the advantage. Strong to the line in the closing stages when runner-up to DIEGO DELGADO three starts back, he is more than effective on the passing lane which presents the options to capitalise.

CALL TO ORDER (4) resumed from a spell to start his 3YO season with successive 2nd placings on this deck before cashing in third up when too strong for them as a long odds-on favourite after sitting parked. Closing hard when 1m away at this format two back, he will throw it down.

DIEGO DELGADO (2) was a winner three starts back when sent around from the second line to sit parked and graft out the W. Beaten a neck at his next start, he has the gate to feature.

ONE LAST ROLL (2) is one from one over the 947 blitz, with that win coming just three starts back for the veteran. Unable to get across, he was still able to sit parked and put them away with a strong last 800. Unsuited at his past two starts, he gets his chance to claim another one.

FIREBOLT (4) was trying to fend them off from the front last start but was unable to see it out when collared up the passing lane. That was his first look at The Triangle and with that recon under the belt, he has the class to issue the challenge from the tricky gate.

MUCHO GUAPA (3) had the arm hustle to hold them wide from gate 1 over the 1780 last start and from the front was able to take them all the way. Strong to the line two back, she has claims at her first attempt at the short trip.

There is some fire power in this heat and the first 100 might just scorch the track. FEELIN FLIRTY (3) can hum out when set alight and if he gets across, the short trip is right in his favour. That said, he does not have to lead to win, evidenced last start when rattling late to score. A love of The Triangle only strengthens his credentials.

WONDERWOMAN JUJON (1) was faced with the outside gate last start when tackling this trip and when produced for the effort, flew over the top of them late to grab the prize. With good speed out of the machine, she is a nine-time winner on this deck and two from three at the trip.

ANGELIC SHE AINT (2) was able to get to the poles from gate 2 here last week and in control was able to run a slick trip to become the longest priced winner in the Trot Rods. With early options, she is right in the fight.

Knocking on the door in recent outings, BETTOR CULLECT (4) found the ideal conditions last start to claim the 3YO Fillies Breeders Classic Consolation. Never in danger from the front, it followed a starchy effort when parked and beaten an eyelash. The perfect three from three on this deck, she can maintain the perfection.

TRALEE MAXIE (1) sat in the trail over the mile at HQ last start and when angled for the run, darted through to claim the prize. A beaten fav three starts back when asked to sit parked from the second line, he secures all the early favours to issue a late challenge.

MY UTLIMATE VICTOR (6) can run the arm, but likely not enough to get across from this gate. That makes his chances of claiming a run-on victory tough, but look for him trying to chime in.

PROMISING (4) was strong to the line from a second line gate last start when 2m from the winner ESCOBAR. That followed a mid-field return behind the smart REGAZZO DI TILLY. The short course looks ideally suited to his pattern where he can get out and burn hard.

MISSTREPO (2) has 17 wins in the Sunshine State, with 14 of those coming here on the Triangle of Dreams. A last start winner from a wide gate, grafting it out when parked, she is equally effective when saved for the closing shot. With the chance to grab a spot, watch for the baldy face in the stretch.

MISTER FONZI (5) resumes from a spell to target this fresh, making his first appearance since December. With form behind much stronger opposition last campaign, he can chime in here.

Already the clubhouse leader before Grand Final night MASTER CHARLES (3) will get the chance to lower his own mark or retake it if there is a quicker runner earlier in the night. With great speed out of the machine, he took control last week and had them gasping throughout to set the standard in 2024. In great form, he will be hard to stop.

REDS STAR DEAL (6) was trying to wind up in the closing stages last start over this trip, darting back to the passing lane from the wide gate when runner-up to ANGELIC SHE AINT. The gate stings again, but his record here at the Peninsula is exemplary at 17: 7-4-2.

PRESS STATEMENT (5) has not been too far away in recent starts and does have enough early dash to find a position. Beaten a neck two starts back, a return to this track aids his chances.

MONSIEUR DELACOUR (3) was exposed early before finding cover here last start and then over the latter stages was issuing the challenge when only a head adrift of victory. Darting through on the passing lane three starts back, he can find the early position to capitalise.

ARODA (5) had two attempts at this format last season as a 3YO where he returned a victory and a close second. His only other start here on The Triangle was a victory in the Derby Consolation when leading throughout. Beaten just 4m behind the airborne WISPER A SECRET last start, he will throw down the challenge.

MERGE RIGHT (4) comes into this fresh following her last start when tackling the standing start Goldstrike Final at Marburg. With eight victories here at Redcliffe, she will be right in the fight.

The final Trot Rods of the season where OOGA CHAKA (5) resumes from a spell. Last seen back in December when runner-up to THE TAX CULLECTOR, he has good closing speed when saved for the last shot. In a race where there will be tempo and off the back of a smart trial performance, he can descend on them.

ARKIN WICKED (2) eased early over the 2138 last start before trying to make a closing play, finishing 6m astern of the winner NICKS PICK. Asked to sit parked the start prior, he saw them off from the front three back and he heads back up the Houghton Highway to a track where his record is an impressive 5: 3-1-1 with those two placing in his two attempts at this format.

LUVBITE (4) has been runner-up at his past two starts, both when drawn the second line. Making the closing play when finishing a neck from WINDY HILL WALLY last start, he can press forward if asked.

SELECTIONS: OOGA CHAKA (5), ARKIN WICKED (2), LUVBITE (4)
SUGGESTED BET: OOGA CHAKA (5) to win
