 S. Comments:Trainer C. Waller advised that it is the intention for the gelding to be ridden further forward today if circumstances permit. When questioned by Stewards regarding the gelding's performance, jockey M. Cahill advised that after being slow to begin the gelding failed to muster early speed, and due to the fast early tempo was hard ridden at the tail of the field for the majority of the race to hold its position. He added that in the home straight the gelding ran on fairly, and he believes that the horse may be better suited over further distances. A post-race vet exam revealed no abnormalities.

Guthmann-Chester stated that he had been instructed to go forward and take up a handy position and if possible get a trail and attempt to find cover. He said that from the wide gate he was unable to achieve that option and he was reluctant to ease back as he felt that he would still be racing in a three wide position. He added, however, that in his opinion TVERSKY still found something in the early stages of the straight but tired over the concluding stages.

Cormack stated that the gelding could not muster any early speed and despite his urgings did not make any ground, and when placed under pressure from the 600m failed to respond. Jockey Cormack added that, in his view, the gelding would be better suited in races over a further distance, and that the horse would take a fitness benefit from today's race. A post race veterinary examination failed to reveal any significant abnormality.
