S. Comments:Slow into stride. Shortly after the start had to be checked off the heels of THE BURGLAR which was laying in and away from HIGHWAY QUEEN. When questioned, R. Fradd stated that after being slow into stride and being severely checked, the gelding raced further back than he would have liked, and then approaching the home turn he had to alter course when in restricted room, which forced him to lose some momentum at that point of the race, however the gelding then finished the race off quite well over the concluding stages and in his opinion would be better suited in races longer than that of today

He said from today's awkward draw it was his intention to restrain and endeavour to find cover in a forward position. He added that shortly after the start he became aware there were a number of runners to his inside and as he was reluctant to urge it forward as he was concerned it may overrace, he took the option to endeavour to restrain, however the mare appeared to resent this and threw its head up for some distance.
