S. Comments:Rider explained that the horse was tardy to begin, which did not concern her as she had been instructed to ride it in a rearward position. She said the horse seemed to travel well throughout the run, however from the 700m when the tempo of the race quickened, her mount was left flat-footed and despite her urgings was unable to sprint with the remainder of the field. She added that as a result, VODNIK was unable to make up ground and finished one-paced in the run to the line and was most disappointing. Trainer said the gelding does not appreciate racing on firm surfaces. Vetted, lame near fore.
