He said after the mare began awkwardly he did not wish to race in a rearward position on the rail and for this reason immediately shifted to the outside of WALLWA. He said rounding the turn near the 1400m it became obvious that WALWA was not intending to race near the rail and as BOCAGE was left three wide without cover, he felt he had little option but to restrain and shift back towards the rail and save ground. He said that after this the horse travelled only fairly in the run and t
