lead, however, after beginning fairly he allowed the mare to stride forward	to obtain a position of	closer to the fence. Jocke	ey Byrne added that as a consequence he found himself in the lead leaving the 1200m and gave con	sideration to allowing	CASINO EVIL to cross for	orward of him. Given the moderate tempo in the early and middle stages, he was content to remain in the lead	ding position.

When guestioned regarding the seemingly disappointing performance of the horse, which started a short-priced favourite, rider J. Lloyd explained that his instructions were to make use of the favourable barrier and after beginning slowly he then elected to push forward on the colt as it had led in its most recent trial. He also noted that the horse made some abnormal respiratory noises in running and had to work hard to hold a position. He also noted that the horse may have choked down and was disappointing.

S. Comments: Stewards guestioned jockey M. Cahill and trainer T. Haydon regarding the apparent change in tactics as the horse was ridden in the lead in today's event, which was in contrast to the horse's recent training pattern. Jockey Cahill explained that he had not been issued specific instructions as to where to position the horse, however had been advised should he be found in the second half of the field he should be looking to improve his position to be closer to the lead when rounding the home turn. He stated he had made the decision on jumping away to be somewhat positive on the mare, and after
