 S. Comments:Rider questioned regarding her vigour from near the 500m until approaching the 300m. She said she slapped the horse down the shoulder approaching that point and it became awkward and shifted out. She then balanced it again and was concerned that as it was having its first start, it may make the turn awkwardly and she was reluctant to apply full pressure at that point. Stewards advised Ms Lacy that in similar circumstances she would be expected to apply full vigour as the horse had become more tractable at that point, however given her limited experience, took no further action.

Concerned with how much he had to pressure horse early and as such was content to settle outside leader. App also mindful that gelding had over-raced when ridden hard in early stages at his last start. Stewards advised App that he should have continued to ride forward so as to obtain lead outright.

On return to scale rider N. Thomas was of the opinion that the gelding put in an awkward stride near the 100m and may have suffered an injury on pulling up. A post race veterinary examination failed to reveal any significant abnormalities.

He added that the horse's breathing was somewhat unusual during the event and he was disappointed with the way in which the horse found the line. A post-race veterinary examination revealed no abnormalities. Trainer B. Lockwood advised that in light of jockey Pengelly's comments he would add a tongue tie to the horse's gear and he was of the view that a step up in distance would be beneficial for the horse.

S. Comments:questioned the tactics adopted, in particular the middle stages when the horse raced several lengths clear of the main body of the field, and the performance of the horse, jockey C. Small stated he to work harder than anticipated to obtain the leading position and following that he allowed his mount to travel at a comfortable pace without being pressured, however the gelding did not respond to his riding from the 600m and proved disappointing. Trainer L. Small advised it was her intention to start the horse at Ballina on the 12th of March and would then review its current preparation.
