S. Comments:J. Lloyd explained that during the preliminary he was concerned with the horse's action and for this reason he sought a veterinary inspection on arrival at the barriers. He said that after having the horse trotted and cantered up behind the start and in consultation with the veterinary surgeon he was satisfied that the horse was suitable to race, and this opinion was confirmed by the veterinary surgeon. He said that in the early stages the horse travelled comfortably, however after going some distance the horse did not feel free in its action and on straightening he became concerned and theref

S. Comments:Jockey J. Lloyd reported that he intended to be in a midfield position, however after being slightly slow to begin and then placed in restricted room shortly after the start he was obliged to settle further back than anticipated. He added that he was reluctant to place undue pressure on the horse from a wide barrier to obtain a midfield position, so he was content to restrain to a one-off position towards the tail of the field.
