Tilley advised that after being slow to begin, his mount settled further back in the field than he anticipated. He added that during the middle stages, in his opinion, the mare was reluctant racing to the inside of runners and therefore from the 500m he elected to shift the mare to the outside where it ran on strongly over the concluding stages.

Williams stated that the instructions were to lead, however the trainer did comment that the horse was inclined to race keenly and possibly hang. Apprentice Williams reported that after obtaining the lead she attempted to restrain the gelding, however was unable to and as a result her mount raced several lengths in front of the rest of the field and did not finish the race off strongly. Stewards accepted the explanation.
