Having ridden the gelding trackwork she was reluctant to overly restrain it, once obtaining the lead, as she was concerned that it would drop the bit and then fail to respond when placed under pressure later in the event. Stewards advised App Payne that once obtaining the lead near the 1000m she should have made a greater effort to restrian the gelding so as to give it every opportunity to finsih off the race to the best of its ability.

Noted mare resented being ridden aggressively and as such was reluctant to place it under undue pressure in early stages. Passing 800m became concerned with amount of ground lost on remainder of field and commenced to ride mare along, at which point it improved into race and then finished the race off well. Jockey agreed with stewards and conceded he had erred in early stages
