 S. Comments:Slow to begin before mustering speed under hard riding to occupy a forward position. When questioned regarding the seemingly disappointing performance of the horse, which started a short-priced favourite, rider J. Lloyd explained that his instructions were to make use of the favourable barrier and after beginning slowly he then elected to push forward on the colt as it had led in its most recent trial. He also noted that the horse made some abnormal respiratory noises in running and had to work hard to hold a position. He also noted that the horse may have choked down and was disappointing.

S. Comments:Raced four wide without cover throughout. When questioned regarding his positioning of the gelding in the early stages, apprentice J. Guthmann-Chester stated that he had been instructed to go forward and take up a handy position and if possible get a trail and attempt to find cover. He said that from the wide gate he was unable to achieve that option and he was reluctant to ease back as he felt that he would still be racing in a three wide position. He added, however, that in his opinion TVERSKY still found something in the early stages of the straight but tired over the concluding stages.

S. Comments:Stewards questioned jockey M. Cahill and trainer T. Haydon regarding the apparent change in tactics as the horse was ridden in the lead in today's event, which was in contrast to the horse's recent training pattern. Jockey Cahill explained that he had not been issued specific instructions as to where to position the horse, however had been advised should he be found in the second half of the field he should be looking to improve his position to be closer to the lead when rounding the home turn. He stated he had made the decision on jumping away to be somewhat positive on the mare, and after
