S. Comments:Stewards questioned apprentice C. Dougherty in the presence of Jockey Advocate Mr D. Tanti as to the tactics she adopted near the 800m where she elected to shift out from a one-off position. Apprentice Dougherty explained that she had been instructed by the trainer to allow her mount clear running where possible and when RED SAGA improved to her outside she did not want to be held up on the heels of WIG WAM BAM and therefore elected to shift out and attempt to improve at this point. She added that in hindsight, despite the instructions that she had been given, it would have been a better optio

S. Comments:When questioned regarding the tactics adopted in the early stages, in particular whether there was an opportunity to maintain a forward position rather than restraining and settling further back, jockey C. Whiteley stated that after beginning well, when he attempted to maintain a forward position, STRIDE OF PRIDE, which was racing to his inside, shifted out, forcing him wider. He therefore was of the view that he was going to be caught racing three wide and therefore elected to restrain and obtain a position with cover in a midfield position. When questioned as to the disappointing performance, Jockey R Plumb stated that after travelling comfortably for the majority of the race, the gelding was then reluctant to improve when racing between runners before commencing to weaken rounding the home turn. He also added that the gelding may have been accidentally struck over the head by another rider's whip. As he was of the view that something may have been amiss with the gelding he did not apply any more pressure to the gelding in the home straight.
