S. Comments:When questioned, jockey R. Plumb stated he was advised by the trainer that the horse had a history of being fractious in the gates and his instructions were to position the horse where it felt comfortable in the early stages. He added that after being crossed shortly after the start the filly raced a little greenly back in the field however finished the race off reasonably well and, in his opinion, would benefit from today's experience and may be better suited over longer distances than that of today's event.

S. Comments:When asked as to why she remained racing 3 wide without cover when there appeared opportunity to restrain and race behind COLLARS UP, apprentice S. Lacy stated that the horses usual racing pattern is to race in front or up on the speed, and the mare has shown in the past to have a reluctance to being restrained as well as an inclination to choke down. She added that in the heavy going she was not overly concerned to maintain the position she did, however in hindsight conceded it may have been more advantageous to endeavour to restrain to find cover.
