When questioned in relation to the disappointing performance Jockey R Fradd advised that the colt travelled comfortably during the event, however from a point near the 600m, commenced to hang out and in the home straight failed to run on proving very disappointing. Co Trainer Trent Edmonds was at a loss to explain the disappointing performance of the colt which he advised that continued to train on well following its last start victory. Rider reported that he was instructed to ride with some vigour in the early stages with the intent to get the gelding to travel and when he was trapped extremely wide on the track approaching the 1600m rather than restrain and lose several lengths to settle in a rearward position he elected to allow the gelding to stride forward.
