S. Comments:Inquiry re poor performance. Rider stated that he believed the 59 kilograms impost today had a bearing on the horse's performance. He added that, in his opinion, his mount raced like a horse coming to the end of its preparation and indicated connections would now give consideration to sending it for a spell.

Jockey Taylor advised she was attempting to fulfil instructions of which she had been told if her mount was not able to lead she would be expected to make a run from the 800m as the gelding can maintain a long run and does not possess a quick sprint. S. Comments:Weakened from the 300m. Inquiry re performance. Rider indicated that the horse travelled well until leaving the 400m, then raced greenly and not responding over the final 300m. She added on return to scale the stablehand handling the horse indicated the filly appeared to have its tongue over the bit and this may have caused the poor performance. Trainer M. Mair indicated that the distance of today's event may not have been suitable for the filly at this stage of its preparation, adding he may trial the horse before its next race start. Vetted with no abnormalities reported.

S. Comments:Inquiry re below market performance. Rider said after allowing Balgownie to cross in the early stages and take up a trailing position, and when Nada To Prada improved to his outside, he said that his mount, in his opinion, did not feel comfortable when racing in this position. He added that in hindsight the mare may be a horse which appreciates leading as in 2 of its 3 starts it has performed well when permitted to lead. He was of the view this was the explanation for the poor performance.

S. Comments:Began awkwardly. Rider G. Colless was questioned regarding his riding of the gelding over the final 200m. He stated he had pressured the horse approaching the home turn and leading into the home straight, however it failed to respond to his riding and, in his opinion, the gelding's run had ended and for that reason he was reluctant to place his mount under further pressure. The explanation was noted. Trainer reported it choked down and he would add a tongue tie to its gear.

S. Comments:Stewards questioned rider J. Byrne regarding the performance and his tactics. He stated that due to interference occurring forward of him near the 800m and because of the steady pace being set in the event, he shifted wider on the track rather than steady from heels. He added that he was wide as a result of this, however the horse travelled well into the home straight and was doing its best work over the concluding stages and he was pleased with the overall performance.

Comments:Rider said after beginning well he was keen to find cover and therefore allowed BROADWAY LASS to cross. He said the tempo of the race then slowed so he elected to shift out to the outside of the heels of the leader near the 1000m. He said from that point on his mount never travelled comfortably in the soft track conditions and when ROYALTOWN ROAD improved up around him from the 700m, his mount appeared to not appreciate racing inside other runners and despite being placed under pressure did not respond and was most disappointing.
