S. Comments:Obtained a leading position after beginning well and, as a result, settled further forward than anticipated. On return to scale, jockey K. Yoshida advised that, in his opinion, the gelding would be better ridden with cover in future events, however he was unable to do so on this occasion due to the circumstances of the event. The gelding was found to have tied up following the event.

He indicated the horse, in his opinion, had appreciated the step-up in distance, however was at a loss to explain the horse's last start performance. Mr Nugent indicated he supported the gelding at its most recent start and was very disappointed, having had blood tests performed following the event which had failed to identify any problems. He added at both starts this preparation due to the horse being awkward to begin and being tightened for room at its most recent start, the horse had settled further back in the fi
