From that point onwards was held up and unable to improve and had to be restrained on a number of occasions until passing the 150m, and was then obliged to alter course again near the 100m to obtain clear running. Stewards questioned jockey B. Stewart regarding his riding from the 600m. He indicated, with hindsight, he would have remained further to the outside, which would have afforded his mount clear running earlier in the home straight. He explained that he felt it would be a better op

S. Comments:Slow to begin before mustering speed under hard riding to occupy a forward position. When questioned regarding the seemingly disappointing performance of the horse, which started a short-priced favourite, rider J. Lloyd explained that his instructions were to make use of the favourable barrier and after beginning slowly he then elected to push forward on the colt as it had led in its most recent trial. He also noted that the horse made some abnormal respiratory noises in running and had to work hard to hold a position. He also noted that the horse may have choked down and was disappointing.

S. Comments:Apprentice M. Murphy reported that his mount travelled strongly throughout when racing in the box seat. He added that when asked to improve into the race from the 400m the gelding failed to accelerate as he had expected and, in his opinion, was disappointing over the concluding stages. Trainer B.

Currie expressed disappointment in the gelding's finishing performance today. He added that, in light of this performance, he will now review the horse's current preparation, and may consider sending it for a spell. A post-race veterinary examination revealed no apparent abnormalities.

Guthmann-Chester stated that he had been instructed to go forward and take up a handy position and if possible get a trail and attempt to find cover. He said that from the wide gate he was unable to achieve that option and he was reluctant to ease back as he felt that he would still be racing in a three wide position. He added, however, that in his opinion TVERSKY still found something in the early stages of the straight but tired over the concluding stages.

Jockey Byrne added that as a consequence he found himself in the lead leaving the 1200m and gave consideration to allowing CASINO EVIL to cross forward of him. Given the moderate tempo in the early and middle stages, he was content to remain in the leading position.
