S. Comments:Kicked out in the barriers and sustained a minor abrasion to the nearside hock, which was noted upon examination by the veterinary surgeon, and was cleared to start. T. Brooker reported that approaching the 600m her mount commenced to hang out and then hung in under pressure in the home straight and was very disappointing. A post-race veterinary examination, in light of the performance, which was below market expectations, found further lacerations to the front of the nearside hock which had not been noted pre-race.

S. Comments:J. Byrne reported that although it had been his intention to possibly lead, his mount did not begin as well as anticipated and was quickly crossed in the early stages and then raced very greenly throughout the event, overraced onto heels on a number of occasions and had to be checked from heels near the 800m and again when held up for clear running between the 500m and the 400m. A post-race veterinary examination revealed no significant findings other than it had a poor post-race recovery rate.

Cormack stated that the gelding could not muster any early speed and despite his urgings did not make any ground, and when placed under pressure from the 600m failed to respond. Jockey Cormack added that, in his view, the gelding would be better suited in races over a further distance, and that the horse would take a fitness benefit from today's race. A post race veterinary examination failed to reveal any significant abnormality.

S. Comments:Jockey D. Browne reported that after travelling well throughout the event, the horse blundered near the 450m and was immediately under pressure and weakened in the home straight. A post race veterinary examination failed to reveal any significant abnormalities. Stewards questioned trainer L. White who was of the view that the poor performance could be attributed to the rain-affected track. Miss White was advised that stewards would follow up with her in the coming days as to the horse's recovery.

S. Comments:Stewards questioned apprentice T. Williams regarding her tactics when racing three wide throughout. She indicated that in the early stages she saw an opportunity to position her mount behind LIMESTONE COWBOY in a one-off position, however, ARLIE REWARD overraced badly and she unable to restrain the gelding sufficiently to cross behind the heels of LIMESTONE COWBOY. She said she then elected, after the 800m, to allow the horse to stride in a three-wide position rather than continue to fight the horse. Stewards accepted the explanation.
