S. Comments:Jumped awkwardly and lost ground. When questioned, jockey McGillivray stated that the horse did not travel at any stage of the event. He indicated that he was obliged to niggle the horse in the middle stages and when under pressure in the home straight the horse laid in and felt awkward in this action. A post-race veterinary examination revealed no significant findings. Trainer L. Birchley's stable representative Mr M. Henderson was advised that in light of today's performance and the comments of jockey McGillivray, the gelding would be required to trial prior to its next start.

S. Comments:Stewards questioned jockey D. Browne as to whether he had opportunity to shift wider rounding the home turn to secure clear running. He indicated PLAY NOW had commenced to weaken to his outside from near the 600m and as a result he would have to steady in order to shift out around that horse's heels. He elected to remain at the heels of BARNEY as he felt that horse would shift out shortly after straightening and afford him clear running. He was further disappointed however when TRIPLE ARROW shifted out from the inside and took up a position to the inside of BARNEY, which resulted in him b

S. Comments:When questioned regarding the horse's performance, T. Harrison expressed her disappointment in the gelding's failure to let down as expected when asked to improve leaving the 400m. Jockey Harrison was of the view that the gelding may not have appreciated today's track conditions and noted that it has performed best when its runs have been further spaced. Stable representative Mr A. Kermond explained that the gelding may not have appreciated the short back-up from last start. He said the horse had worked well leading into today's event ant it may be the stable's intention to freshen the horse u

S. Comments:Jumped away awkwardly, causing its rider to become unbalanced. The horse then made contact with another runner which resulted in the horse stepping sideways. This caused jockey R. Maloney to be dislodged and fall shortly after the start. Jockey Maloney was examined by the Club doctor, who also reviewed the race footage and was satisfied that no further medical review was required of jockey Maloney. Stewards also ruled that the horse had been afforded a fair start and declared the horse a runner. When questioned regarding her riding of the horse, which settled at the tail of the field which was in contrast to the horse's most recent start when permitted to lead, jockey T. Harrison stated she had been instructed to ride the horse in a forward position, however not to lead by any great margin as the horse has been ridden in this fashion at recent starts and not finished its races off.
