S. Comments:Held up for clear running on entering the home straight and obliged to shift out passing the 200m to improve into clear running. When questioned re tactics, in particular electing to shift wider passing the 200m, Rdr explained was mindful of not exposing gelding to an extended run with the allotted weight, however after being held up in the early part of the home straight, shifted wider to secure clear running when in hindsight the better option would have been to ride patiently to see if a run eventuated.
