S. Comments:When questioned as to whether there was an opportunity to improve her position approaching the home turn, Apprentice said that she had been instructed to ride the mare where it was comfortable, and not to contest the lead if the tempo was solid. She felt the leader, had gone hard in front and she envisaged that it would weaken, so she desisted from riding her mount along at the home turn, electing to let it straighten and balance up before placing it under full pressure. She agreed with the view of stewards that she had erred by not placing her mount under pressure earlier.

He said that after passing the 400 metres when runners to his outside improved, he elected to restrain his mount where it commenced to over-race. However after being crossed the gelding settled. Trainer confirmed the instructions issued, however was reminded of her obligation to inform stewards of any proposed change in tactics.

S. Comments:When questioned regarding his riding of the mare, Jockey explained that he had been instructed to take up a position with cover. He said that after beginning particularly well from the outside barrier, when runners to his inside showed superior speed he elected to restrain his mount in an attempt to find cover. He said that the only way this could be achieved was to restrain to the tail of the field, where his mount travelled comfortably throughout, and after obtaining clear running on the rail in the straight the mare ran on well.
