S. Comments:R. Fradd reported that he could offer no excise for the horse's poor performance. Although trainer C. Anderson undertook to advise stewards of anything that comes to light in the days following the event that may have had an effect on the horse's performance, he was reminded to ensure that his horses remain on course for the required time following the race.

He said the gelding showed sufficient early speed, however ARGOS REVENGE also improved to his inside, so he had to make more use of the gelding than he would have liked. He said at its previous start the horse was inclined to overrace and hang out and for this reason he was intent on pursuing the lead and getting the horse across to the rails. He added that the horse then travelled nicely in front and weakened over the concluding stages. He said he would have preferred not having to make as much use of the horse in the early stages.

He added that he had previously nominated and accepted for Ipswich on Saturday 13 January but unfortunately the mare injured itself in transit to the course and was a late scratching on that occasion. He added that subsequent to that occasion the mare had won a trial at Deagon very comfortably and he had expected a forward showing from her today. The explanation was noted.

S. Comments:When asked to comment on the horse's performance, apprentice H. English indicated that the horse overraced in the early stages and when asked for an effort after passing the 600m failed to respond and was quite disappointing. Vetted, no abnormalities. Trainer S. Kirkwood advised stewards that veterinary tests, including blood tests, would be performed on the horse, the results of which he would report to stewards, and in light of today's performance, he would give consideration to sending the horse for a spell.

S. Comments:Stewards questioned M. Cahill regarding his tactics in that he settled in a midfield position with cover, which is in contrast to the horse's established racing pattern, which is to lead. Jockey Cahill indicated that his pre-race tactics were to ride the horse in a forward position, however after jumping from the wide alley he did not feel that the horse had shown sufficient early pace to cross runners to the inside and therefore he elected to steady in an attempt to obtain cover. Stewards, after viewing the patrol footage in the company of jockey Cahill, accepted the explanation and took no f
