S. Comments:When questioned, jockey R. Plumb stated he was advised by the trainer that the horse had a history of being fractious in the gates and his instructions were to position the horse where it felt comfortable in the early stages. He added that after being crossed shortly after the start the filly raced a little greenly back in the field however finished the race off reasonably well and, in his opinion, would benefit from today's experience and may be better suited over longer distances than that of today's event.

He stated the gelding began awkwardly and was a little slow to muster speed and from the draw he was of the view he would end up racing 3 wide with cover behind DREAM WILDER and when that horse shifted in, as he did not want to be left 3 wide without cover, he allowed KENDALL'S DREAM to stride forward to improve which resulted in him racing further back than anticipated. He added that approaching the first turn rather than remain 3 wide behind KENDALL'S DREAM he elected to restrain and shift back
