| S. Comments:Jockey L. McCoy reported that during the middle stages of the race her mount felt somewhat awkward in its action and was reluctant to stretch out. She added that, in her opinion, the gelding's action improved in the home straight, however it still did not feel entirely comfortable and, for that reason, she desisted from riding it out over the concluding stages. On the advice provided by jockey McCoy, Stewards ordered a veterinary examination be undertaken on the gelding which revealed no apparent abnormalities. |                     |              |                                     |  |  |  |  |

| S. Comments:When questioned by Stewards regarding the performance of the mare, which weakened badly over the concluding stages, Apprentice R. Goldsbury advised that, in her opinion, it raced too keenly in the early and middle stages, and would benefit from obtaining a soft lead. Stewards noted the explanation. |                     |                 |                       |                               |                  |
