Associate

- Any person outside the Trainer, Driver or Breeder categories who have made an outstanding contribution to the Queensland harness racing industry.
- This category includes owners, administrators, media, bookmakers and any other person deemed appropriate by the selection panel.
- Candidates may still be active in their profession in the industry.

Selection Panel

The Selection Panel will be made up of individuals whose knowledge of Queensland harness racing is highly regarded.

The selection panel for this round of nominations includes:

- Damian Raedler - former Albion Park Harness Racing Club CEO;
- Donny Ross – and Hall of Fame member long-time industry participant;
- David Fowler – Hall of Fame member, former Albion Park Harness Racing Club Chairman, and race caller;
- Bernie Ring – Redcliffe Harness Racing Club President;
- Brett Rail – Racing Queensland Harness Manager;
- Chris Barsby – Queensland race caller; and
- Jodie Jones – Racing Queensland Board harness representative.

RQ has also appointed David Brick as secretary who will administer the selection process.

Nomination/Selection Process

A call for nominations from the industry will be made by the secretary of the Hall of Fame Selection Panel via a number of available channels.

Nominations are to detail the name of the nominee and address the selection criteria. All nominations will be kept on record for consideration in future years.

At the conclusion of the deadline for nominations, information on all current nominees will be forwarded to the Selection Panel.

The Selection Panel will then meet to discuss the nominees and determine up to two Hall of Fame inductees per year.

Racing Queensland reserves the right to withdraw Hall of Fame nominations or membership if a nominee or inductee behaves in a manner which undermines the integrity, reputation, or public image of racing.
