

Effective 23 November 2020

RACING QUEENSLAND DRESS CODE GREYHOUND TAB RACING CLUBS

TRAINERS / HANDLERS

CLOTHING:

Males: White collared business OR polo shirt, with a Greyhound club or racing logo on left chest. Dark (navy blue or black) panel / stripes on side of polo shirts is permitted.

Black trouser / business pants with black belt (belt is optional).

Black dress shorts are permitted at race meetings where the first race is scheduled before 2pm.

(No singlets, running/athletics shorts, board shorts, jeans or tracksuit pants).

Females: White collared business OR polo shirt, with a Greyhound club or racing logo on left chest. Dark (navy blue or black) panel / stripes on side of polo shirts is permitted.

Black trouser / business pants with black belt (belt is optional), OR black skirt (minimum knee length).

Black dress shorts are permitted at race meetings where the first race is scheduled before 2pm.

(No singlets, running/athletics shorts, board shorts, jeans, leggings or tracksuit pants).

FOOTWEAR:

Males: Black enclosed shoes - Waterproof with rubber soles with plain black or plain white socks (No thongs, joggers or sandals).

Females: Black enclosed shoes - Waterproof with rubber soles with plain black or plain white socks (High heel shoes not permitted, no thongs, joggers or sandals).

HEADWEAR:

Black or White hat or caps (Optional)

Hats must have a brim and worn with the peak to the front (i.e. Baseball caps). Akubra style hats permitted.

No beanies or bucket hats

FEAURE RACE DAYS

Queensland Greyhound Racing Clubs may ask Greyhound Racing License holders to wear special feature race day attire from time to time. I.e. Black suit vests, bow tie etc...

PLEASE NOTE

The above dress code policy DOES NOT apply to Catchers, with the exception of:

CATCHERS DRESS CODE:

- Catchers must present themselves in a neat and professional manner.
- Dress shorts are permitted at race meetings where the first race is scheduled before 2pm.
- The following are not permitted: Running/athletic shorts, board shorts, tracksuit pants, singlets, high heels, thongs or sandals.